

JACK ATKIN, THE BEST ALL-ROUND HORSE OF SEASON

Barney Schreiber's Great Four-Year-Old Packs Weight and Runs Like a Deer on All Sorts of Tracks.

BY VINCENT TREANOR.

ACK ATKIN That's a name that will live for generations in ourf hisber, the rich Western breeder of thoroughbreds, has in many respects on fast tracks and in mud, Jack Ackin has been racing with great success re, from California to New York. He has started in fifty-six imes, third four times and teen out of the money only eight times.

Classed among the highest as a otherwise he might have added the printer. Jack Atkin has no superior, with the possible exception of Roseben, as a weight carrier. He has given weight away to good horses dozens of times and won. He has won with as much as 15 bounds on his back. He did this only last winter at New Orleans.

Atkin, and who still trains him, bemoney has been severely handicapped for a soriher, considering how he has been severely handicapped in all his races by the official weight adjuster.
Owner Schreiber came near parting with Jack Atkin last winter at New Orleans, John J. Ryan, the plunger of him just after a selling plater had unaccountably beater the good coit.
Schreiber believed his horse was near the breaking down point, and had about accountably beater the good coit.
Ryan needed a day's time to get the money, but before his check reached

The sight of the field in the opening event being sea to the post by a red-The signt of the held in the opening event being led to the post by a red-coated master of the hounds and the arpearance in the field of two patrol jugges, who followed the races on norseback, was odd indeed to those who viewed the meet for the first time. The first race had three entires—Dublin, Irish Giri and Diana. They went ture and a half miles over a natural hinting course. The layers, fifteen of them on hand, didn't know just which to make favorite, but finally agreed on T. O'Brien's mount. Diana, however, won by about half a mile from Dublin, the favorite. Diana led all the way. Mr. Stevenson, who rode, got a genuine ovation from his friends present.

Noticed among the society folks present were; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Raynal, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hitchcock, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Carman, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Prince of Pilsen Disqualified.

Prince of Pilsen performed the wonderful feat of coming right back in the next race, a steeplechase over the two and a half mile course, and really winning it, only to be disqualified for finishing in the wrong lane and taking an extra jump he wasn't expected to clear.

A. Hewitt, on Yama Christy, the favorite, who was last in the race, saw the mistake of Prince of Pilsen and Maximilian and steered his mount over the right finish line. Although he in reality was third, the judges could do nothing but place him first. Prince of Pilsen and Maximilian had to go back and cover the last 100 yards of the right course to finish second and third respectively. It was hard on the backers of Prince of Pilsen, for he was the best horse.

The Hunt Cup, a handicap steeple-chase over the three-mile course, was won by Thomas Hitchoock's Judge O'Gin, with Lee Evans in the saddle. He led practically all the way, and Mr. Evans received a great ovation from his friends as he galloped past the finish fine. Judge O'Gin was a 3 to 1 shot in the betting. My Grace in the Hampton Stable colors, with J. O'Brien up, was second, fifty lengths in front of Larone, wto closed very fast to get third place on the flat. Flying Machine shook Mr. Fairfax from his back early and Ell went down soon after. Rain came down in torrents as the field

Five Start, Two Finish.

The second race was Timber Topper selling Hurdle Plate over a course of about two miles. There were five starters, but only two really finished. Jim McGill was the favorite, but holied at the wing of one of the hurdles and threw J. Powers. T. O'Brien, in the Rainev colors of the first race, remounted McGill, and finished third, although there was no third money. Prince of Pilsen won, with Wild Dance second.
